

FOREST ECOSYSTEM SERVICES FORUM

Current perspectives on FES: Issues and pathways to implementation

PROGRAMME
8:30	Registration and coffee
Welcome, overview and international perspectives (Chair: Tim Payn)
9:00	Welcome and Scion's vision for FES research	Warren Parker (CEO, Scion)
9:20	Recap of FES forums 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015	Peter Clinton (Scion)
9:30	Behavioural policy 'nudges' to encourage woodland creation for climate change mitigation in the UK (via video conference)	Gregory Valatin (Forest Research UK)
9:50	Impacts of ecosystem services on forest productivity	William F. Hyde (Colorado, US)
10:30	Morning Tea
What has been happening on the ground? National level (Chair: Peter Clinton)
10:50	What next for the Ministry for the Environment and Forestry?	Jane Frances (Ministry for the Environment)
11:10	Measuring ecosystem services: The System of Environmental-Economic Accounting (SEEA) perspective	Jane Harkness and Adam Tipper (Statistics New Zealand)
11:30	Measuring progress through an ecosystem services lens	Beat Huser (Waikato Regional Council)
11:50	Thoughts on developing a national forest policy in New Zealand using an ecosystem services approach	Peter Edwards (Scion)
12:10	Perspectives on FES: Issues and pathways to implementation	Richard Yao (Scion)
12:30	Launching of Scion's FES video	Tim Payn (Scion)
12:35	Lunch
What has been happening on the ground? Forestry legal frameworks and mechanisms (Chair: Tim Payn)
1:15	The role of philanthropy, partnerships and non-government initiatives in New Zealand conservation	Devon McLean (NEXT Foundation)
1:35	How to deliver ecosystem services outcomes in the long term: Testing adaptive governance as implementation pathway	Sandra Velarde (Scion)
1:55	Sustainable FES provision through diversification in a forest estate in the South Island	John Hollows (Ernslaw One)
2:15	Identifying economic and environmental complementarities between the dairy and forestry industries in the Central North Island	Juan Monge (Scion)
2:35	Workshop on How to encourage tree planting to sustain and enhance FES provision	Moderator: Tim Payn (Scion)
3:45	Reporting of workshop results and future directions	Workshop group leaders
4.00	Synthesis and closing	Peter Clinton (Scion)