

Time	Morning sessions	Presenter
8:30am	Mihi whakatau (Māori welcome)	Hemi Rolleston (Scion)
8:35	Welcome and opening remarks	Dr Tara Strand (GM, Scion)
Session 1: International perspectives – Chaired by Dr Tim Payn, Scion
8:45	Climate-Forest-Water-People relations from tree to earth system scales	Professor Meine van Noordwijk (World Agroforestry Centre and Wageningen University & Research)
9:30	Homogenisation of terrestrial water cycle jeopardizes planetary resilience	Professor Irena Creed (University of Saskatchewan, Canada)
10:00	Woodlands for water payments for ecosystem services schemes	Dr Gregory Valatin (Forest Research, UK)
10:30	Morning break
Session 2: New Zealand national perspectives – Chaired by Dr Peter Clinton, Scion
10:45	Giving effect to the contribution of Māori lands to Ecosystem Services	Tina Porou (Poipoia)
11:00	Ministry for the Environment perspective	Alison Collins (Ministry for the Environment)
11:15	Forestry New Zealand's perspective and priorities	Debbie Ward (Forestry New Zealand – Te Uru Rākau)
11:30	Land use, climate change, water and people connections: an academic perspective	Professor Alan Renwick (Lincoln University)
11:45	Pāmu Farms of New Zealand perspective	Steve Carden (CEO, Pāmu)
12:00pm	A forest manager's perspective	Sally Strang (Hancock Forest Management)
12:15	Panel discussion
12:45	Lunch break
Time	Afternoon sessions	Presenter
Session 3: Research and regional perspectives – Chaired by Dr Richard Yao, Scion
1:15	Data to information to impact: Co-learning from end-user engagements	Dr MS Srinivasan (NIWA)
1:30	Waikato Regional Council perspective	Blair Dickie (Waikato Regional Council)
1:45	Northland Regional Council perspective on afforestation to control hill country erosion	Dean Satchell (Northland Regional Council)
2:00	Panel discussion
Session 4: Forest ecosystem services forum – Moderator: Claire Stewart
2:15	Reflection and future focus of ecosystem services in New Zealand	Claire Stewart and team
3:15	Afternoon break
3:30	Co-designing research on forest ecosystem services	Claire Stewart and team
3:50	Synthesis and where to next	Dr Peter Clinton
4:00	Karakia whakamutanga (Māori close)	Hemi Rolleston (Scion)